Syllabus of Beginner course of Spanish A1

The DELE A1 or breakthrough level, as described by Instituto Cervantes, certifies that the student is able to communicate using the language in a basic way in situations having to do with immediate needs or everyday situations.

The course is designed in such a way that one can develop his/her conversational skills, listening skills & writing skills. The elementary or A1 level will teach basics of spanish.

The course will enable a candidate to

1. Introduce himself/herself, & day to day mannerism.
2. Basics of grammar like personal pronouns, gendre, articles, verbs & their conjugations in present tense, form questions (why, what, how etc.)
3. Day to day vocabulary like Days of the week, months of the year, directions, ABCD, numbers, colors. A basic (if the time permits) vocabulary related to dressing, food, animal, description of an area etc.
4. State a place with regards to location, the monuments.
5. Talk about the tastes & preferences while dealing with day to day life as well as public life.
6. Express time of the day
7. Tell the address
8. Talk about good & bad qualities in a person.
9. Value the experience or a thing

This is, as told before, a rough idea of the syllabus. The tutor could add allied topics, if felt needed. The course is aligned as per the Govt of Spain's exam DELE A1 (Diploma de Espanol como Lengua Extranjera)
